NAVY DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Dear Mr. Baird:

The U. S. Naval Intelligence School conducts a course of instruction five times a year for Naval Attaches prior to their departure for overseas assignments. In previous years, to supplement the Attache Orientation Course, the Central Intelligence Agency has provided guest lectures. In order to assist in meeting the objectives of this course, the services of guest speakers from the Central Intelligence Agency is again requested. 25X1A

Specifically, it will be greatly appreciated if speakers can be made available as follows:

0900-1200, Monday, 1 May 1961	The Intelligence Community and Organization of CIA
1330-1630, Thursday, 4 May 1961	Sketching as An Aid in Reporting
1300-1430, Wednesday, 17 May 1961	Industrial Identification
0900-1130, Wednesday, 17 May 1961	Special Field Relationships (Combined with PG Class)

Future assignments and some background information concerning the students attending the next Attache Orientation Course are not yet available but will be provided for the speakers before each lecture.

LCDR J. G. BOGDAN, USN, of the Naval Intelligence School Faculty (Code 1215, Ext. 440) is authorized to make detailed arrangements with lecturers designated by you.
